

The fact that more than two million Hungarians voted against Ukraine's EU membership, allowing Viktor Orban to take a firm stand at the EU summit, shows that Hungary was able to stand up for its national interests, said the senior analyst.

---

Forrás