

Until September this year, 95 million parcels from the Far East transited through the airport. Logistics development needs are likely to benefit the industry, for example the likes of Waberer's, which was recently acquired by the PM's son, István Tiborcz.

---

Forrás