

Fidesz's delegation in Brussels and the Patriots for Europe EP group have revealed the list of contracts signed by the European Commission with so-called "civil sector organizations," including thousands of political activist groups.

---

Forrás