

The two companies Hungary's MVM is doing business with have been receiving lucrative orders from the Serbian state since Aleksandar Vučić came to power. According to the Serbian press, there are no signs that this will change in the future, so MVM may now be looking forward to significant revenues from the deal.

---

Forrás