

One amendment suggests retroactively taking away donations given to NGOs and independent media on the government's list and giving them to a foundation established by the government earlier this year.

---

Forrás