

Tisza Party politicians have recently voted yes in the European Parliament on a series of proposals that support immigration and punish member states that reject it, including Hungary, and that provide additional resources for the propagation of rainbow propaganda.

---

Forrás