

According to the prime minister, intelligence operations against Hungary and smear campaigns funded from abroad are kicking into high gear. The Defense Council has made the necessary decisions to protect the country's security.

---

Forrás